

Answer one question.

EITHER

1. Write a speech for a school assembly encouraging your peers to raise funds for a charity.

[40 marks]

In your speech you could:

- state why the organisation is such a good cause
- describe ways you and your peers could raise funds
- explain the impact your contribution might have.

OR

2. Write an article for your school newspaper exploring the importance of safety during adventurous activities.

[40 marks]

In your article you could write about:

- the different ways we might find ourselves in dangerous situations
- how we could prepare for an unexpected event which might put us in danger
- what benefits might come out of facing challenging situations.

Answer one question.

EITHER

1. Write the words for a presentation encouraging your peers to be more understanding of each other's values and cultural backgrounds.

[40 marks]

In your presentation you could:

- state why it is important to be understanding of people's differences
- describe ways you could develop a more understanding attitude to those around you
- explain the impact such a change might have on society.

OR

2. Write a letter to your headteacher encouraging him/her to allow you to create a special event to celebrate how differences within the school can unite us.

[40 marks]

In your letter you could write about:

- why it is important to celebrate people's differences
- the different celebratory activities that could take place and their significance
- what benefits might come out of this kind of event.